It's Really Spring at Ohio Wesleyan Now

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—A demonstration by some 500 male students rocked the Ohio Wesleyan University campus Thursday night. The men marched on three women's dormitories, causing extensive damage, and bombarded police with "water bombs" before being dispersed.

One Delaware policeman, James Banks, said he was hit several times by water-filled bags as he entered a women's dormitory to chase out several male students.

A reporter for the school newspaper described the demonstration as a party raid. He said the girls were waving and throwing panties from their windows.

The reporter, who asked not to be identified, said the incident started as a water fight between several fraternities, but that it snowballed into throwing eggs, mud and firecrackers and finally the march onto the women's dorms.

The crowd dispersed after the university's dean of men, William Zeman, arrived on the scene and began taking students' names.

The student reporter said the fraternity men smashed street lights and windows at dormitories and sorority houses, and pelted them with water bombs.

The head women's councillor at Stuyvesant Hall also was bombarded with water bombs, he said. No one was reported injured in the hour-long melee and police did not make any arrests.

Ashville High Leads County In State Tests

Ashville-Harrison high school students led Pickaway County in the preliminary district-state scholarship tests given April 1 and 2 in the local schools.

Ashville had top students in five tests and an additional tie in a sixth test. Williamsport and Pickaway each had high ranking students in three tests.

Walnut and Atlanta had top pupils in two tests and Scioto came up with one first. Ashville pupils ranked first in English 9; world history; social studies, and Spanish I and II (it was the only school participating).

Ashville tied with Pickaway in physics. Pickaway's firsts were in English 12, American history and algebra I. Williamsport was tops in English 10, English II and algebra I.

OTHER SCHOOLS capturing firsts were Atlanta—biology and plane geometry; Walnut—Latin I and bookkeeping, and Scioto—general science.

Top ranking pupils will participate in the finals of the state-district scholarship tests on May 2 at Ohio State University, Columbus.

Situation Said

newsmen that the hostages would be burned with gasoline if an attempt was made to storm the prison.

He said the rioters wanted an investigating committee to check what he called mental and physical brutality within the penitentiary.

"If you give us a chance we'll prove we've been mistreated," the convict said.

A newsmen shouted back: "Why did you kill the deputy warden?"

The voice from within the cell-block answered: "Because he attacked me."

Before the convict opened his conversation with the group standing outside the main gate, state police and guardsmen had mustered in front of the main entrance and several had climbed to guard turrets around the prison walls.

Then the unidentified convict said: "I want you to hear one of the men we have in here." Then a voice, identified as that of one of the hostages, pleaded with authorities to rush the prison.

Walt Jones, a prison psychologist whose home is in Butte, also appealed to authorities outside not to do "anything hasty" because of the men held by the convicts.

Nearly 150 hastily summoned members of the Montana Guard, police from nearby cities and prison guards had rested fitfully through the night while their officers plotted strategy for the rescue of the hostages.

Jack Zygmund, Associated Press newsmen from Helena, said he was crossing the street near the prison to interrogate seven inmates leaving the prison when a deputy warden shouted: "Stop or I'll blow your head off."

Then he leveled his rifle at Zygmund. Zygmund said the official ordered a highway patrolman to confiscate his notes, but Zygmund convinced the patrolman the notes were on other matters.

The newsmen said he wanted to ask the inmates why the rioting started and why the seven men were sent out of the prison. Later developments showed that the seven left because their terms were nearly up and they didn't want to jeopardize their chances for release.

The prison official was not identified.

New Ag Program Proposed To Aid Farmers, Cut Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.) proposed today a new farm program he said would both raise farm prices and cut costs to taxpayers. Its principal features would:

1. Pay farmers a billion dollars a year to take out of production land that now produces costly farm surpluses. This idea, which Capehart called "acreage storage," is similar to the expired acreage reserve part of the soil bank program.
2. Raise the minimum price at which the government would be permitted to sell on the domestic market any of the nine billion dollars worth of surplus farm products it now holds.
3. Authorize a speeded-up research program to find new industrial uses for farm products.

Capehart offered his program—and invited changes—in the midst of a stalemate between the Eisenhower administration and the Democratic-controlled Congress. Each has called on the other to come up with a specific program.

Capehart said his proposal would raise crop prices through the combination of cutting production and sealing off present government surpluses from domestic markets.

The present surpluses tend to press down on prices of each new crop because the government is permitted to sell them at prices slightly above support levels—in most cases about 80 per cent of parity. Capehart would raise this minimum to 100 per cent of parity plus handling costs. Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them.

Present surpluses still could be sold abroad and used for relief at home and abroad.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he is happy about Ohio House passage of companion bills to promote industrial expansion in the state.

The measures, suggested by the governor more than two months ago, passed the House Thursday by a unanimous vote. They go to the Senate.

BODOE AIR BASE, Northern Norway (AP)—A small fleet of U.S. Air Force planes was expected to start an arctic search today for the space capsule ejected from the satellite Discoverer II.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has declined to evaluate a substitute bill pending in the Ohio Legislature which provides broad liberalization of the state's unemployment compensation benefits.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The ammunition was at hand today for another rousing feud between the Navy and the Air Force.

Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy disclosed that the Joint Chiefs of Staff are thinking about putting the Navy's Polaris submarine-missile weapon system under operational control of the Air Force's Strategic Air Command.

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—A claim that "suburbanism" threatens higher education was made today at the opening of Miami University's conference on "What is a College For?"

August Heckscher, head of the Twentieth Century Fund, opened the two-day conference with a charge that colleges today foster too much withdrawal from public leadership, which he said is characteristic of suburban life.

U.S. Surplus Aiding USSR

Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, has found the American surplus farm product program to be an aid to the Soviet Union. From reports coming to him from agricultural offices overseas, Shuman says he is convinced wheat, cotton and soybeans harvested on American soil have found their way behind the iron curtain, and were reshipped under the mark of the hammer and sickle.

The Soviet Union, he charges, has been using these products to undermine American markets in Europe.

Department of Agriculture officials acknowledge receiving many such reports since the inception of the surplus disposal law of 1954, but claim they have been unsuccessful in pin-pointing any specific shipments of wheat—the principal farm product involved in surplus sales—to the communist world. Under the 1954 law, surplus farm commodities are sold at bargain prices to foreign nations, with payment made in local currency. The only stipulation in the sale is that the goods must not be resold to the Soviet Union and its satellites.

Soviet trade officials, in an all-out attempt to undermine American in West European markets, have been flooding the area with wheat priced still lower than that being offered by the Commodity Credit Corporation—much lower in fact than the Soviet Union itself pays for it. By buying farm products at the prevailing market price and reshipping them back into trade channels at less than cost, Russia is obviously presenting an attractive inducement to buyers.

Many are increasing their acceptance of the bait, to the detriment of Western traders.

No country can continuously assume a deliberate deficit in its trade transactions, and the Soviet Union has no intention of doing so. But it is achieving its goal of attracting traders' attention away from the Western camp. As long as it continues to offer exports at less than cost, it will continue to attract interest. Moscow counts on some of this interest remaining after the deficit sales pitch has been discarded.

It is not pleasant to contemplate the American farm surplus program, which has failed miserably in its goals of reducing surpluses and lifting its paralyzing restrictions from agriculture, now being used as a tool of the Soviet trade offensive.

How About a Year's Vacation?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Would you like a year in which every day seemed like Saturday?

Would you like a 365-day paid vacation from work?

The idea of a year off from your job to rest or study has been seriously advanced by Arthur Carstens, a University of California labor expert.

Carstens believes such year-long holidays, to be financed jointly by employers and the state, would benefit workers. They would, he said, "cut down the toll of pressure that makes widows of half of the nation's women."

He doesn't take into consideration the other half of the picture: If wives had their husbands under duress for a 12-month stretch, half the men would wind up widowers.

But progress always has its price, and this is a risk most thoughtful men would be willing to take.

As we see it, Carstens' proposal for a sabbatical year is of value only if the year away from office and factory were wisely spent.

Some showoffs, naturally, would try to impress the boss by enrolling for the year at Harvard, which only would mix them up. It takes four years of Harvard to remove the confusion from a man. Even 12:30-1:30 — Lunch: Beer, beef then the diploma carries no guarantee.

What really is needed is a soundly planned program which will enable the individual, at the end of his year of enforced leisure, to return to the job a happier, more rounded man.

We have drawn up such a daily program for ourselves—in the unlikely event our boss gives us a year off—and suggest you might find it useful too.

Here is our day:

7:00—Wake up and laugh at silent alarm clock, which has been turned off the night before.

7:00-7:01 — Brisk calisthenics while lying in bed.

7:01-9—Go back to sleep.

9:30-10 — Debate whether to shave.

Decide not to.

9:30-10 — Read newspaper and breakfast—bourbon, toast, bacon, eggs, coffee.

10-11—Give wife orders of the day, and point out her errors of the day before.

11-11:15 — Coffee and bourbon break, spent resting on sofa.

11:15-12:15 — Front porch rocking chair session. Make plans on how to spend tomorrow in constructive way.

12:15-12:30 — Highball with next door neighbor.

sandwich, apple pie and cheese.

1:30-1:35—Read good book to improve mind.

1:35-3—Nap on sofa.

3:3-15 — Coffee and bourbon break.

3:15-4:45 — Back porch rocking chair session to get benefit of afternoon sun. Review morning's plans for tomorrow, decide tomorrow is a bad day to start any new projects.

4:45-5 — Inspect vegetable garden, point out to wife areas where she should do more hoeing.

5:8-30—Cocktail hour.

8:30-9:30—Dinner: Wine, sirloin steak, salad, mashed potatoes and gravy, ice cream.

9:30-11:59 — Discuss with wife why world is going to hell, lay out her work schedule for next day.

11:59-12:00 — Write postcard to boss saying how much you miss the old office gang, and how you're champing at the bit to get back.

12-12:01—Go to bed with second good book of day to improve mind.

12:01—Throw book out window and fall asleep.

Of course, no program is ideal for everybody and you may want to vary this one in small ways. But if you follow it rigorously, one thing is sure.

At the end of your sabbatical year you'll be eager to return to your job—so you can start planning on your pension, when you'll be able to live this way the rest of your life.

Doctors' Fees Not Too High

By George Sokolsky

I have received a rather large mail in response to an article I wrote about doctors' fees. Those who complain have several arguments which ought to be aired.

On the subject that doctors' fees are exorbitant, I can hardly agree with the critics. A man is entitled to charge what he thinks his services are worth. If an hourly wage worker wants more money for his work, he might go on strike to get it. School teachers and other city employees threaten to go on strike for more money. But if a doctor charges what he thinks his services are worth, he is called a scalper. A reader writes:

"Too many doctors today are absolutely commercial. They are thinking more of the almighty dollar than of the patient."

A doctor can think about his patients all day long, but he still has to pay for taxes, rent, food and clothing, books, publications and instruments. He has no way of earning a living except by charging for his time, skill and services.

Some physicians and surgeons may charge more than their patients want to pay. That is a private transaction involving two individuals who can usually reach an understanding in advance of the services being rendered.

The complaint is made that doctors are hard to find on Wednesday afternoons and Sundays. This is one of the most difficult problems to solve. Folks get sick every day and at all hours of the day, but it is inhuman to expect that a doctor or anyone else will be around 24 hours a day, 365 days of the year. He might like to go fishing, too. He might like to visit his mother or attend a convention. He might even want to go to a show with his wife or to go courting so he can get a wife.

In the larger cities, arrangements are usually made by doctors to cover for their colleagues through a telephone answering service. It does not always work out satisfactorily, particularly in a real emergency.

Local medical associations ought to work out these problems satisfactorily. It would be both an opportunity and an experience for young interns to service such an emergency committee directly under a medical association so that doctors could be free on Sundays and on the Wednesday afternoon which is some take off as a break.

The doctor who refuses under any circumstances to go on a house visit is wrong. I have never encountered such a physician, not even a specialist, but if there are such, they should be pilloried. There can be no reason for an absolute refusal to make a house call.

The criticism that doctors insist that patients go to a hospital for treatment is stupid. That is the best place to go. It is impossible to give a patient as competent a treatment as in a hospital. When a doctor instructs a patient to go to a hospital, that is where the patient should go.

It is unfortunate that there is a shortage of hospitals in this country and it is a crime that some of the hospital workers in our large cities are being organized by professional union operators. Of course, everybody who works in a hospital is underpaid but it is also true that practically no hospital is in the black.

The suggestion that comes from one reader that "doctors use all of the facilities of hospitals as places of business, putting it bluntly, without paying a cent for the privilege" strikes me as particularly nonsensical. Any hospital—connected physician, having a private practice, works for that hospital for free. If hospitals had to pay doctors for all the work they do in the hospital, such institutions would have to close down after the first year's budget.

After reading quite a large number of letters, I have reached the conclusion that many persons expect to get medical services for nothing; that they do not appreciate that a physician is a human being with the usual habits, ailments, and requirements of other human beings; that many Americans have lost the habit of paying-as-you-go but have, because of the Depression and the wars, taken on a habit of having things done for them; that they do not appreciate top value but will accept what comes so long as it costs nothing.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

AN EMISSARY from Europe ran into trouble on the very first night of his mission to the U.S.A. Following the continental custom, he placed his shoes (the only pair he possessed) outside the door of his room to be shined, and went to bed.

In the morning he discovered the chambermaid for that floor had appraised the shoes carefully—and thrown them away!

Exercise for Breast Surgery

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Doctors frequently prescribe exercises to prevent certain muscles from freezing or aching following surgery of various types.

For the 50,000 American women, who each year undergo breast operations, exercises generally are extremely important. They help overcome feelings of tightness, numbness and other discomforts.

The following exercises are suggested in a valuable pamphlet prepared by the Identical Breast Form Company of New York.

Before passing them on to those of you who can benefit from them, I want to caution you to check with your personal physician first. Then do only those exercises he recommends. Follow his advice also about how long and how frequently you should perform them.

When doing these exercises, stand with your feet straight and about eight inches apart. Try to do as many of them as possible in front of a mirror. By looking straight into a large mirror, your head, neck and shoulders automatically will fall into the proper position.

Exercise No. 1. Face the wall with your feet close to it. Place hands against the wall at shoulder level.

Inhale slowly while working your finger tips up the wall as high as possible. Then, exhale and slowly work your hands down again to shoulder level. Rest before repeating.

No. 2. Swing a rope over a rod, such as the rod for the bathtub shower curtain. Stand straight behind the rope. Grasp one end in each hand and spread your arms far apart.

Inhale while pulling on the rope with the unaffected arm and slowly raising the affected arm as high as you can. Exhale as you bring your arm down again.

No. 3. Roll your shoulders back. Inhale as you raise your arms to shoulder level, keeping your elbows, wrists and hands straight out and firm. Rotate your hands and arms in a circular motion, first forward and then backward.

Exhale and lower arms. Rest and then repeat the routine.

The World Today

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

Associated Press News Analyst
Some striking parallels between the two careers and personalities might well make one wonder: Is Fidel Castro a sort of Nasser of the Antilles?

The question is likely to occur to many who have the opportunity to see and hear the Cuban revolutionary leader on his current visit to the United States.

To suggest this casts no aspersion on the man who toppled an entrenched Latin American dictatorship against almost impossible odds. Egypt's Gamal Abdel Nasser, like Castro, is, to say the least, a remarkable man.

The following is true both of Cuba and Egypt: Before the revolution, the country was in the grip of a corrupt and often brutal regime. The revolution's victory was welcomed by a great preponderance of the thinking people in the Western world. It was considered a hopeful development, a chance that the lowly citizens so long abused and neglected at last could look forward to a decent break.

Like Nasser's, Castro's postrevolution approach to his monumental problems sometimes has seemed more emotional than practical. Indeed, even in his mannerisms, his gestures, his way of rolling his eyes heavenward, his eloquence and his personal charm, Castro inevitably reminds one strongly of Nasser.

Even Castro's stoutest supporters in the United States will admit he has a Nasser-like inclination to put if the slightest doubt is cast upon his pronouncements or intentions.

Like Nasser, Castro came to power as a young man—very young for the job of coping with the vast complexities inherited from the corrupt old regime. As in Nasser's case, there is a suggestion of political immaturity in Castro's approach.

Castro even has sounded like Nasser when he spoke loudly of asser's case, there is a suggestion of political immaturity in Castro's approach. Nasser when he spoke loudly of asser's case, there is a suggestion of political immaturity in Castro's approach.

Nasser was not satisfied to develop his own revolution. He diverted and halted its more hopeful programs for the sake of interfering in the affairs of other Arab countries. He seemed to picture himself the liberator of a great area, much of which did not particularly want to be liberated.

It is to be hoped Castro will want to develop his own revolution. It has a great deal of promise. It may be interrupted, perhaps set back many years if he chooses to encourage Cuban adventuring in the Caribbean and elsewhere in Latin America for the purpose of "liberating" areas which may not long for his own particular brand of liberation.

The Cuban situation is vastly unlike the Egyptian in this respect: Cuba, alongside of Egypt, is a fabulously rich land. If Castro's attempt at a social revolution should go the way of Nasser's, Castro will have far less excuse than Nasser had.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It's all right for Ohio funeral homes to serve coffee, tea and nonalcoholic drinks, but that's all. Food and alcoholic beverages as part of a funeral establishment's service have been ruled out.

Urge-To-Kill Girl Labeled 'Just Scared'

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—A chubby, 18-year-old blonde who said she fired 18 bullets into a young father because of an urge to kill is "just a scared girl" to a psychiatrist.

Dr. Walter Rappaport, chief of a state mental hospital, talked with pony-tailed Rosemarie Bjorkland a few hours after she told Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore she killed August Norry, 28, on Feb. 1 as he dumped grass cuttings.

"I wanted to see if I could commit a murder and not have it on my conscience," Miss Bjorkland, a clerk-typist, was quoted by Whitmore. "I've felt better ever since I killed him."

Norry, married and expecting to become a father, was only a casual acquaintance who happened along when she was target practicing in the hills near her Daly City home, just south of San Francisco, she said. An urge to kill that had obsessed her for at least two years became impossible to control when Norry happened to be in the target practice area, she related.

Rosemarie, a scared girl to Dr. Rappaport, was "a lone wolf" to Nadeline Ochoa, head clerk of the San Francisco publishing company where they worked.

She took her coffee breaks and lunches alone, but sometimes bragged about being handy with a knife, Mrs. Ochoa said. Other employees said she carried a knife in her purse.

To school authorities, Rosemarie was a problem, transferred among three high schools for drinking and cutting classes and finally quitting to go to work.

She fired 18 shots from her target pistol at point-blank range into Norry, reloading twice.

She lived at home with her mother, father, and three younger brothers, ages 9 to 13.

She will be charged with murder, said Howard Hartley, district attorney.

Interest Rate Slash Predicted by Senator

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP)—Congress probably will enact legislation in the next two years to reduce interest rates, Sen. The senator said interest rates increased under the Republican administration and that it brought about "devastating consequences" for people trying to buy homes and cars and expand small businesses.

Biblical Show To Be Feature At State Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An hour-long fireworks display telling stories from the Old Testament will be one of the main grandstand attractions at the 1959 Ohio State Fair.

Rowland Bishop, fair manager, said the display, entitled "Out of the Darkness," will be the main grandstand show for the final four days of the fair. Roy Rogers and his troupe will be featured the first four days.

The native Ohio cowboy and his troupe will receive the first $25,000 of proceeds from their two-day shows, fair officials say. The remaining income will be split on a 70-30 basis, with Rogers collecting the lion's share.

The 1959 fair, Rogers received $40,000 of the first $50,000 in grandstand income and 75 per cent of the remaining "take."

Bishop's announcement was part of his report to the State Board of Agriculture.

Bishop said basic plans for the operation of the fair have been set up. Space and concession contracts will be issued beginning May 1 and repairs to various housing and display facilities have begun.

Some new events and new rules were outlined for the Senior Fair by its manager, E. J. Keirns. Publicity for the fair will be popping up in all sorts of places. Richard Goodrick, publicity officer, said billboards will be used extensively. "Smiley the Clown" will tour Ohio and dinner place-mats, boosting the fair without cost to the state, will be distributed to Ohio restaurants.

Goodyear Pact May Aid in Negotiations

CLEVELAND (AP)—A new contract agreement between the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. and the United Rubber Workers pointed the way today to a possible early ending of strikes by 58,000 production workers against other members of the rubber industry's big four.

Goodyear and URW negotiators announced Thursday that a settlement has been reached on a master contract and a supplemental unemployment benefit plan affecting 24,000 employees in 11 cities throughout the country. They added that only the drafting of contract language remains for a new pension and insurance plan.

Details of the agreements will be announced when they are signed. The settlement was reached about 13 hours after the union struck the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. and the B. F. Goodrich Co. The new walkouts at midnight Wednesday added 18,000 Firestone and 14,000 Goodrich workers to the 26,000 U.S. Rubber Co. workers who struck at midnight April 9.

Wages are not an issue for any of the big four. After the master contracts have been signed, wage matters will be discussed under a provision giving the URW the right to reopen talks for this purpose on 60 days notice. An eight-cent hourly wage increase last summer brought the average pay scale in the big four to $7.48 to $27.11 an hour.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Flyswatter Now, Cannon Later

DEAR ABBY: An old school chum moved very close to me and we decided to have our huzzies meet. The second time we got together she decided that she liked my husband better than she liked her own. My husband is flattered by the way she plays up to him and her husband is so dumb he doesn't know what's going on (or doesn't care). I don't mean to imply that there is anything serious between them, but I am afraid there could be. My husband says I am being foolish. She keeps calling me to get together. Should I discourage seeing them or do you think I am unnecessarily jealous? P. S. She sent him a very suggestive valentine.

BEING CAREFUL
DEAR BEING: If there is the slightest doubt in your mind about your school chum's intentions, avoid her. Better to use a flyswatter now than a cannon later.

DEAR ABBY: I'm burned up about that mother who signed herself WORRIED because her daughter was marrying a farm boy and she was afraid the farmers would ruin her wedding by showing up in overalls. I was raised on a farm and I wish I wish I were back on one now. Those shallow city folks with their cocktail parties don't know what living is until they've wrapped a new-born calf in a blanket in the wee small hours of the morning or looked out at daybreak to see a flock of baby chicks picking up feed. That woman ought to follow those overall-clad fellows around and learn to appreciate what they represent.

GRACE
DEAR ABBY: I had to laugh at WORRIED'S letter. She was afraid because they were farmers that the groom's mother would come to the wedding in her calico dress and sunbonnet and the father would march in with his boots caked with manure. Then this stupid woman, pretending to be so sophisticated and fashionable, remembered to a lady's evening gown as a "formal" and a man's dinner jacket as a "tux." I am surprised that the daughter of such ignorant and narrow-minded people had sense enough to pick a college-bred farm boy. Best wishes.

LAURA
DEAR ABBY: I want to entertain for a friend of mine who is getting married. There have been a lot of showers for her and some of the girls can't afford to go any more. Can you think of something that won't cost the guests very much, but will be a nice way to honor a bride?

THINKING
DEAR THINKING: How about a RECIPE shower? It won't cost the guests anything and all brides welcome good recipes.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

REVIVAL—The spring revival at the Pilgrim Holiness Church will begin at 7:30 p.m. Sunday with Daniel Woodward of Portsmouth delivering the message. He is a singer and musician as well as a preacher and now serves as pastor of the Nazarene Church, West Portsmouth.

School Says Railroad Errs In Bus Claim

XENIA, Ohio (AP)—Charges that a loaded school bus crossed railroad tracks despite signals warning of an approaching train have been made by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The incident reportedly took place Tuesday near the scene of a train-car crash last month that took the lives of 10 persons, eight of them Girl Scouts.

Following Thursday's charge, Beaver Creek and Green County school officials promptly denied that it was a Beaver Creek bus. The crossing is in that school's district.

E. V. Kavanagh, superintendent of county schools, said the school buses that use the Bellbrook-Fairfield road crossing carry only high school pupils. The pupils would have been in school at the time of the reported violation, he said.

The train's engineer did not see the name on the bus. Beaver Creek School Supt. Vaughn Lewis said railroad detectives have been following the buses to catch infractions.

Colorful Columbus Lawyer Dies at 60

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Emile Reiss, 60, Columbus attorney who was chairman of this year's Franklin County Lincoln Sesqui-centennial Committee, died in Doctor's Hospital Wednesday night. He had had a heart ailment for a long time.

Reiss had long been a controversial figure in Columbus civic affairs. He had frequently launched batteries of taxpayer's suits, set up complete sets of legal actions and led delegations in causes that sparked his indignation. At one time he had the city's entire legal department tied up in 25 suits that ranged from Municipal Court to the U.S. Supreme

Saul's Tragic Failure

THE KING DISOBEYED THE LORD

Scripture—I Samuel 14-15; 31.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
TODAY'S lesson tells the tragic story of how the first king of Israel, whose reign began auspiciously, "instead of becoming stronger in character, and more yielding to the will of God day by day, as Moses, Joshua and Samuel were . . . takes one downward step after another, until his life terminates in overwhelming defeat of his nation, the death of his sons, and his own suicide." I am quoting Dr. Wilbur M. Smith's introduction to the lesson.

Jonathan, Saul's son, is the hero of the first episode of our lesson. He suggests to his armor bearer that they "go over to the Philistines' garrison," but he did not tell his father of his plan.—
I Samuel 14:1. The armor bearer agreed, although Jonathan said they would tell the Philistines who they were and explained: "If they say unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them. But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the Lord hath delivered them into our hand;
and this shall be a sign unto us."
—I Samuel 14:9-10.

"Between the passages, by

Now Jonathan did not hear his father's command and as the people came to a wood where honey dropped from the trees, Jonathan, being hungry, "put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an honeycomb,
and put his hand to his mouth."
—I Samuel 14:27.

Then one of the people told him of his father's command and Jonathan said, "My father hath troubled the land."—I Samuel 14:27-29.

Therefore, after more Philistines had been defeated and slain, the people, being very faint, "flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground; and the people did eat with the blood"— which was against their law.
Some told Saul, who said, "Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day."—I Samuel 14:33.

Saul said: "Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them, until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them." Before carrying out his plan, he asked counsel of the Lord, but received no answer.—
I Samuel 14:36-37.

For Jonathan's sin his father said he should die, but the people

MEMORY VERSE

"All that the Lord hath said will we do, and be obedient."— Exodus 24:7.

which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side."—I Samuel 14:
4. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith tells us that Capt. Claude R. Conder, a British army officer (1848-1910), believed he had found the very rock where the exploit of Jonathan occurred. It is very steep and difficult to ascend.

The two men did as they planned, and "discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves."—I Samuel 14:11.

The men of the Philistine garrison called to them, "Come up to us," and the two men climbed up and slew the Philistines.—I Samuel 14:12-14. "So the Lord saved Israel that day."—I Samuel 14:23.

After the victory, Saul told the people, "Cursed be the man that eath any food until evening."—
I Samuel 14:24.

would not let their hero be slain,
so his life was spared.—I Samuel 14:42-45.

Later the people took the captured sheep and oxen which they should have destroyed, but Samuel, the judge, said: "Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord?
Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams."—I Samuel 15:21-22.

Doubtless there are people in our day who profess the Christian faith and yet do not listen to the voice of God and live as He and our Lord Jesus Christ would have them. Are you and I among them? Let us pray earnestly that we may not be. If all the world could live as He would have us, wars and crime would cease and peace would come to earth.

Saul's sons were eventually slain in battle against their old enemies, the Philistines, and Saul himself fell upon his sword after the defeat. So ended the life of the first king of Israel.—I Samuel 31:4.

Kingston News Report

By Miss Margaret Thomas
Phone NI 2-3495

The "Open House" at the Kingston Public Library Monday evening, was an enjoyable affair. Mrs. Roberta Leffingwell and her assistant, Mrs. Kenneth Timmons, had the room in shining order, and the books displayed in an attractive way.

Several members of the Civic Club and Hospital Guild helped to greet the guests, and serve them refreshments of punch and cookies.

At 8 p. m., Mrs. E. V. Graves gave a book review in her delightful manner. The book she chose was a very new one, entitled "A Quite Remarkable Father" and the subject was the late English actor, Leslie Howard, written by his daughter, Leslie Ruth Howard. Mrs. Leffingwell urged all boys and girls to register, at once, for the Story Hour which will be conducted this summer. Mothers could register for the children, so that the list may be made up and divided into several age groups.

The Book Week celebration will continue all week, in the county and city libraries. You will be very welcome when you visit them.

On Wednesday, a car load of ladies went to Cincinnati to visit Ruth Lyons' 50-50 Club. At present, Miss Lyons is on vacation in California. Those who went on the day's outing were, Mrs. L. E. Kerns, Mrs. Paul Kerns, Mrs. Jack Sims and Mrs. Royce Conaway.

MISS SAUNDRA Hohenstein, who attends the Carnegie School of Medical Technology in Cleveland, will spend this weekend at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Hohenstein.

The Young Mother's Club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Glen Congrove with Mrs. Sandra Miller as assistant hostess, and 13 members in attendance.

During the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Harold Wright (Nancy Paxton) final plans were made for the children's party which will be held at Yoclangue Park in Chillicothe, May 2. Ten members are planning to attend the Spring Conference to be held at Grove City, April 25.

The Kindergarten teacher of Kingston, Mrs. Maribelle Drummond, gave a talk to the club on the subject, "Preparing a Child for School".

A "ghost" Paint Party, or Liquid Embroidery, was conducted, and a jayette shower was given for Mrs. James Leist (Helen Leadingham) whose baby girl arrived recently. The mystery gift was won by Mrs. Ronald Leadingham (June Sherwood).

Refreshments were served by the hostesses and announcement was made that the next meeting, May 20, will be Visitors Night and will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Jones (Diane Williams).

THE REGULAR meeting of Kingston Order of Eastern Star

No. 411 was held on Tuesday evening with the worthy matron, Mrs. William S. Rhoades presiding.

As the members registered, they were each presented with an attractive favor which was a flower bulb wrapped in different colors used in Eastern Star work, and with a tiny Japanese parasol tucked in the ribbon.

The Worthy Matron's theme for the year is "Light" and she used this bulb to explain the meaning of light to growth of life, physically and spiritually. The little parasol, of course, was a symbol of April showers, which also are necessary for growth.

Announcement was made of invitations to other Inspections, Williamsport April 23, Waverly April 30, Bainbridge May 7, Adelphi May 8, Southern Way (Columbus) May 16.

"The Rays of the Star" will meet May 6 with Beverly Rhoades in Circleville.

May 3 was selected as "Go-to-Church Sunday" and all officers and members were urged to attend the 11 a. m. service at the Kingston Presbyterian Church.

The Worthy Matron read the Landmarks of Eastern Star and reviewed the life of our founder, Dr. Robert Morris.

The charter was draped for Leah McPherson Mundell and memorial service was conducted by the Worthy Matron. Resolutions for Sister Leah will be presented by Mrs. Dorah Morris, Mrs. Herbert Lemley, and Mrs. D. H. Dreisbach.

The Worthy Matron expressed her thanks to her officers for their excellent work at inspection and also to all others who helped to make the evening a success.

Paper Work Costs Business Billion a Year

Specialist Contends
Half of All Record
Keeping Is Waste

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The paper mountain that business climbs daily may be costing it one billion dollars a year more than it should because much of it is wasteful and unnecessary.

Many give advice on how to cut this loss—what paperwork is necessary and what not, how much to file and for how long, systems that cut work and machines that trim the force of clerical workers, and business forms that save time and effort.

Business is estimated to use about 1 1/2 billion pounds of paper a year in various printed forms, plus billions more in stationery, memoranda, note pads and folders.

One specialist in the field says he often found four or more persons filling out business records which easily could be made by one in a single writing. He is Talbot T. Speer, president and chairman of Baltimore Business Forms Co., and so isn't a disinterested bystander. He contends that half of every dollar spent by business in paperwork is wasted, for a total of one billion dollars annually.

Others have guessed that 90 million cubic feet of paper records, weighing more than 2 1/2 billion pounds, and involving 200 billion pieces, are created each year, directly or indirectly, by and for the nation's industrial and government employees. This divided into one cubic foot of paper work for each industrial worker, and five cubic feet per each government employee.

A strong trend today is sighted toward simplification of records and toward automation — both mechanical and manual.

Punched card installations in the nation are estimated now at 30,000, nearly double that of five years ago, and digital general purpose computers at more than 2,500.

Among newer business devices for individual company needs are: Special invoices printed with magnetic ink to eliminate the need for tab keys on special electric typewriters; a machine to cut expensive form production and line-type costs by permitting a wide variety of type faces to be reproduced by a simple typewriting and photographic process; specially inked forms that reproduce even duplicates by the thermo-fax copying process.

The Business Forms Institute says producers' sales last year equaled the 1957 record of 350 million dollars and expects them to set a new one this year.

SUB Speedup Bill Is Given Approval

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The House Industry and Labor Committee today recommended passage of a bill to speed up back supplemental unemployment benefit (SUB).

The measure, sponsored by Reps. John W. Brown (R-Medina) and Roger Cloud (R-Logan), would tap a 25-million-dollar SUB pool. Many eligible jobless workers did not receive SUB payments because industry-labor contracts were contested in court. The recommended bill would permit workers to claim benefits from the pool until next June 18.

Our fearless movie correspondent, Army Archerd, gets set to go for a chariot spin on the set of Ben Hur. Don't know who the fellow peering over the horses' heads happens to be.

Ben Hur Rides Again In Fine Movie Style

By ARMAND ARCHERD
Central Press Association Correspondent

ROME, Italy — There will soon be another "rain" added to the famous ruins of Rome.

This one will be a product of the Twentieth Century—and we don't mean 20th Century-Fox. Matter of fact, it's a creation of MGM, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. The "rain" is the Circus Maximus built for the super-epic of the year, "Ben Hur." It is the million-dollar sequence in the $15 million film. That is approximately how much it will cost to lens the famous chariot race.

The race is scheduled to run about 20 minutes on the screen. The entire film, a little over three hours, the filming process will last close to a year. This film is guaranteed to out-epic any epic so far filmed.

The Circus Maximus set is truly the biggest set this reporter has ever covered on the Hollywood beat. The set covers 18 acres. The straightaways down which the chariots race are 1,500 feet long.

On the "island" in the middle of the arena are four, gold (paint)-covered statues 30 feet high. The studio art director, Edward Carfagno, required a year in the designing and completion of the statues and set.

OVER 42,000 TONS OF sand were trucked to the studio from Italian beaches in order to make a suitable and safe running track for the prize horses. They, too, have been in training for six months.

In order to get a better perspective of the race, we visited the true, ancient ruins of the Circus Maximus in Rome — and arrived at one conclusion: Metro has the Romans beat by a mile! The excitement in the stands is comparable to being in the middle of the Rose Bowl during the New Year's day classic in Pasadena—it is even hotter. The temperature in Rome in the summer passes the 100-degree mark in this bowl.

On this same site on the Cinecittà studios on the outskirts of Rome, another epic, "Quo Vadis," was filmed in 1950. Until this time, it was the grand-daddy of all epics filmed on the lot.

The Italian government now plans to erect a housing development on the studio grounds, which it owns, and move the movie-making location further out of town. Thus will end the history of the movie lot originally built by a dictator, Benito Mussolini. It was later taken over and used by the Nazis for barracks during World War II. Still later, it was converted into a refugee camp for 15,000 Jews who escaped the Nazi terror.

Hollywood's movie men used the lot for "Roman Holiday," "War and Peace," "Helen of Troy," "The Land of the Pharaohs" and "The Little Hut." Already, Italian producers are trying to figure out how to shoot sequences for their films on Metro's sets—but they'll have to do it when guards are asleep—these sets have been built for one picture and that's "Ben Hur" and nothing else!

Court Lists $6,521 in Collections

Circleville Municipal Court collected a total of $6,521.17 in fines, costs, bond forfeitures and parking tickets during March.

The City of Circleville received $2,530.91 of this amount and $1,864.57 was disbursed to Pickaway County. Other disbursements included $1,325.50 to the Pickaway County Law Library Assn.

According to Judge Sterling M. Lamb's monthly report, 165 cases were filed in his court during March. The court disposed of 174 cases during the month, several of them filed previous to March.

Fines and costs suspended during the month totaled $296. Cases where all or part of the fines and costs were suspended numbered 11.

Judge Lamb's report showed that $5,013.70 was collected in total fines and bond forfeitures. Total costs collected added $1,262.47 and total parking ticket violations collected amounted to $245.

The great Sphinx in Egypt was built about 2900 B.C.

ready, Italian producers are trying to figure out how to shoot sequences for their films on Metro's sets—but they'll have to do it when guards are asleep—these sets have been built for one picture and that's "Ben Hur" and nothing else!

On the first day's shooting in the arena 6,000 extras fill the stands. Their reactions prove producer Sam Zimbalist's words: "All Italians are actors. These extras in the stands have been rehearsing as mobs all their lives."

The studio's casting department worked straight through the night trying to line up a system for calling, controlling such an enormous group of actors. A separate studio police force was organized to handle the mob; a restaurant was erected, hospital, etc. It is just like a small city on its own.

CHARLTON HESTON, who plays "Ben Hur," wears a wardrobe which reminds us of him as "Moses." Stephen Boyd, who plays "Messala," is required to wear brown contact lenses to cover up his baby blues. Heston doesn't have to cover up his blue eyes, because, he explains, he established a precedent as Moses!

Haya Harareet, the actress who plays Esther, is an Israeli performer, discovered by director William Wyler at last year's Cannes film festival. She is a former member of the Israeli Marine Corps, who looks like Ava Gardner—and, sorry to report, fellas, she's married!

The film boasts three directors, Wyler for the principals, Andrew Marton for the chariot race alone and Italian Maelo Soldati for a third unit! Five of the top stuntmen of Hollywood were imported to drive the chariots, which, incidentally are nothing like the Romans used—these buggies are equipped with ball bearings!

Nathan Wilson 4-H Leader

Pickaway Twp. Youth
To Guide Farm Group

Nathan Wilson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Wells Wilson, Route 1, was elected president of the Pickaway County 4-H Junior Leadership Club at its regular meeting last night at Monroe Twp. School.

Nathan is an eight-year 4-H club member from Pickaway Twp. and is presently a member of the Pickaway Beef and Sheep 4-H Club.

Vice president of the club for the coming year will be Bill Haral, also of Pickaway Twp. Other officers include: Peggy Clark, Deercreek Twp., secretary; Patty Moats, Pickaway Twp., treasurer; Bonnie Dudleson, Pickaway Twp., news reporter; and Sue Rihl and Linda Sharpe, Deercreek, recreation leaders.

The 4-H Junior Leadership Club is composed of the older 4-H members in the county and in past years has totaled over 100 members. In order to carry on an effective program and give additional leadership training to more members, the club also elects junior officers.

Serving as Junior officers for the coming year will be: Norman Wilson, second vice president; Bruce Wilson, third vice president; Sue Houser, assistant secretary; Cheryl Martin, assistant treasurer; Jeri Skinner, assistant news reporter; and Ann Barnes and Sue Dennis as assistant recreation leaders.

In addition to the election, the group also discussed the county award system and the giving of demonstrations. Homemade games were used as the recreation for the evening. Refreshments were served by the Junior Leaders from the Monroe 4-H clubs.

Columbus Mayor Irked by Report On City Employee

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner got riled when he saw newspaper pictures of a city employee apparently gardening at home while he was supposed to be working.

But it wasn't the employee who got the mayor mad; it was the neighbor who reported the incident.

"The neighbor who turned the man in is about as low as you can get," said Sensenbrenner, a Circleville native, who contended the report should have been made to the employee's boss, not to a newspaper (the anti-Sensenbrenner Columbus Dispatch).

As for the employee, Wilbur Slomum, 64-year-old Water Department clerk, he won't be fired, the mayor said, explaining:

"He probably made a mistake, but it wasn't big enough to cause that much embarrassment to a man who has been with the city for 17 years."

WE'RE BUYING MORE OF THESE—FEWER OF THESE

RECESSION, BUT FUN SPENDING GOES RIGHT ON—Federal tax collections increased in 1958 over 1957 on items at top, and decreased on items at bottom, which indicates that recession or no, we go right on buying fun and make the "hard goods" last a while longer. Total federal tax collection in 1958 was less than in 1957, however, a drop of $2,629,586,000 to $79,757,647,000. Nearly all the drop was due to less corporation payments. (Central Press)

Junkman Garver Still Baffling Against Chisox

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
At 33, Ned Garver is perhaps the American League's No. 1 junkman, dealing in soft curves and brass. He makes the most of his nothing against the Chicago White Sox.

The stubby right-hander has a 116-133 record in 11 seasons of pitching for second division clubs. The White Sox have been tagged for 24 of those victories, the most Garver has taken from any club.

He got the latest Thursday, a five-hit shutout that included but one walk, as the Kansas City Athletics handed the White Sox a second straight defeat 6-0.

The New York Yankees finally fell, losing 7-4 to Baltimore, which got its first victory. Washington whipped Boston 7-5. Cleveland and Detroit were idle.

Garver gave up nothing but singles and breezed home for the first complete game by the A's staff this season. He was helped along by two-run homers from Frank House and Bob Cerv off Early Wynn (1-1).

The Orioles broke through against the Yankees with a four-run eighth inning capped by Billy Gardner's bases-loaded triple. Starter Art Ditmar was the loser, but it was Ryne Duren, the champs' fire-balling relief ace, who gave up a tying single by Gene Woodling ahead of Gardner's clincher. Billy O'Dell won it.

Right-hander Pete Ramos beat the Red Sox although giving up 10 hits and weathering a three-run ninth. Rookie Bob Allison's first major league homer, a three-run swat, and Norm Zauchin's second of the year gave the Nats a four-run fourth inning against loser Herb Moford. It was Reno Bertoia's two-run single in the eighth that put it away, however.

The Los Angeles Dodgers have been a long time waiting on Don Demeter, a scrawny kid they didn't really want in the first place. Now it looks as if their patience has paid off.

Still a rather frail-looking guy, although the Dodgers have fattened him up with liver oil and vitamins. Demeter, 23, has been a robust fill-in for the ailing Duke Snider in center field. With Duke nursing a knee, Demeter has figured in all three Los Angeles victories.

He did it again Thursday night, socking a two-run homer, a single and a fifth-inning double that brought home the winning run in a 7-6 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals at Los Angeles.

"We signed him," Dodger veep Fresno Thompson admits, "because we wanted two other kids. They were all buddies at an Oklahoma City high school back in 1952 and when we signed the two we wanted (I don't know exactly where they are now), they said couldn't we sign their buddy too?"

"So the scout gave him $600 or something like that and that's how we got Demeter."

The Dodgers also have a share of fourth place at the moment in the National League, 1 1/2 games behind Milwaukee's still undefeated first-place Braves, who beat Philadelphia 7-3. The Chicago Cubs, who share fourth, whipped San Francisco 11-3. Cincinnati and Pittsburgh were idle.

The Dodgers counted six runs on three homers in another game of screen-o at the Coliseum. Rookie Ron Fairley sliced a leadoff shot over the left-field "barrier" off loser Ernie Broglio (0-2), who also gave up Demeter's homer for a three-run first inning. Rookie Jim Baxes hit a first inning. Rookie off Howie Nunn, second of six Card pitchers. St. Louis used 25 players, a NL record and matching the major league mark for a nine-inning game. The Cards also used eight pinch hitters and that tied an NL record.

Johnny Klippstein, third Dodger pitcher, was the winner with Clem Labine's help in a two-run ninth. Low Burdette gained his second victory and complete game with a six-hitter for the Braves, who won with four runs in the eighth off losing reliever Jack Meyer (0-1).

Five Giant errors, for a total of 17 in six games, gave the Cubs six unearned runs, five coming as they scored seven in the ninth. Dale Long's two-run homer was the clincher in the fifth off loser Sam Jones (1-1). Glen Hobbie (1-0) won it with relief help.

Harber's One Hitter Stops Pirates, 18-0

Tom Harber, Walnut's twirling ace, handcuffed Pickaway slugers with one hit and played a poor host yesterday as the Tigers blazed an 18-hit attack to bombard the Pirates, 18-0.

Harber struck out six opponents and issued one walk in the five inning fray to run his string of scoreless innings to 10.

Harry Lee took the brunt of the loss as he was tagged for all Walnut's hits, while fanning four batsmen. Adding to his troubles were eight walks that aided the Walnut onslaught of runs.

Harber had fine support from the field as his teammates played errorless ball and made several fine stops of sure hits.

HITTING STARS were White, 4-4, John Noecker and Riley, 3-4, and Six, who rapped out two doubles. Harber, Six and Noecker scored three times apiece.

Lee's effort was crippled as his teammates committed nine errors to turn the game into a rout. Richard Dean got Pickaway's only hit, a ringing shot into center field for a single. Walnut's record is now 6-3.

Jackson Spree Halts Atlanta In 17-3 Game

Jackson unleashed a 23-hit attack yesterday to down invading Atlanta, 17-3.

Every player on the Jackson squad poked at least one hit during the test. Milton Martindale led the attack with four hits in five trips, including a triple.

R. Martindale, Brigner, Walters and Chester each had three safeties. Brigner, O'Connor and Walters smacked a double each. Brigner was the winning pitcher, giving three hits, fanning 12 and walking one. Yates and Bush handled hurling chores for Atlanta.

Jackson scored in every inning, starting off with four runs in the first frame, three in the second, six in the third, one in the fourth, two in the fifth and one in the sixth. Atlanta scored its three tallies in the seventh.

Broncs Tame Triad Nine

Six big runs in the fifth inning gave the Asheville Bronco baseballers a 10-7 victory over visiting Triad yesterday.

Asheville picked up the win on 11 hits, including doubles by Bob Featheringham and Bob Hoover.

Dick Wilcox went the distance for Asheville, whiffing eight, walking three and giving seven hits. Rutan was charged with the loss.

Graves had a triple for the losers and teammate Knotts poked a double.

It marked the third win for Asheville this week, giving the Broncos a 3-0 record in the Darby Valley League and a tie with Jonathan Alder for first place. The Broncos are 6-1 for the season.

Another Excellent Weekend Appears Ahead for Anglers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Got the fishing bug? You might get in some of the best angling of the new season this weekend if the weatherman continues to cooperate. Most lakes and streams are in fair to good condition and fishing generally is reported good.

Here is the report of the State Wildlife Division, by areas:

NORTHWEST—Such favorite fishing areas as Lake St. Marys in Auglaize County, Oxbow Lake in Defiance County and East Harbor in Ottawa County, report good water conditions with bass, bluegills and crappies. Most streams are clear and normal with the outlook fair to good.

NORTHEAST—Most streams in fair to good fishing condition with suckers, carp, some bass and bluegills. Most lakes including Mogadore and Berlin in Portage County; Charles Mill, Pleasant Hill, and Clearfork in Richland County report good catches of bass, bluegills, crappies and catfish. The Portage Lakes in Summit County have produced good catches of bass and bluegills. In the lower region of the Huron River, the smallmouth bass and suckers are running and northern pike are now found in the tributary streams in Lake County.

EAST CENTRAL AND SOUTHEAST—A number of favorite fishing lakes are reporting good fishing and nice catches of bass, bluegills and crappies. Leesville Lake in Carroll County, Seneca Lake in Guernsey County, Clendening and Tappan in Harrison County are among the good spots.

Other promising lakes include Burr Oak in Morgan County, Buckeye and Clouse lakes in Perry County and Lake Alma in Vinton County. They have clear and normal water conditions with various species being caught. Most major streams are normal to low with fishing only fair to good.

CENTRAL AND SOUTH—Most streams report clear and normal water conditions although the fishing pressure is light. Such streams as Big and Little Walnut, Big and Little Darby in Franklin County, Paint Creek in Fayette County and Kokosing River in Knox County are clear and normal. Delaware Reservoir in Delaware County, Hoover Reservoir in Franklin County, Rocky Fork Lake in Highland County and Jackson Lake, Jackson County are all reporting good catches of bass, crappies, bluegills and catfish. Other lakes showing good results are Vesuvius, Lawrence County; Madison, Madison County; and Pike Lake, Pike County.

SOUTHWEST—Most streams are clear and normal and good catches of fish are being taken. Such lakes are Kiser and Brush, Champaign County; Grant, Brown County; Stonelick, Clermont County; and Cowan, Clinton County report good fishing. Other favorite lakes such as Indian, Logan County; Loramie, Shelby County and Hosterman Clark County, report good fishing success.

SANDUSKY BAY AND LAKE ERIE—Perch and white bass are being taken in large numbers at Battery Park, Sandusky Bay. Perch also are being taken at the Bay Bridge. Due to low water temperatures there has been little sport fishing activity in the Bass Island area.

SPORTS BRIEFS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's ring-necked pheasant population is going up again.

The State Division of Wildlife today allocated 93,000 chicks to sportsmen's clubs under a 50-50 plan through which the game birds will be released to the fields.

CINCINNATI (AP)—Bad weather and regularly scheduled open dates have played hob with Manager Mayo Smith's pitching rotation plans for the Cincinnati Reds. But he hopes to get started tonight on a regular routine.

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians will face a southpaw pitcher for the first time this season when they open a three-game series against the Kansas City Athletics here tonight.

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—At about 4 p. m. next Saturday, there should be 60 pooped students on the Bowling Green State University campus.

PROBLEM?

"What I'd really like is a Corvette. But with four kids—well, I guess I need something bigger. Is there any way I can get sports-car performance in a family-size car?"

We were happy to show the young man the answer to his problem. We look at it this way: Every time we help a customer, he's got another reason to come back to us for his next car. (We hope it's a Corvette for that young man!) So we do our best to fit our customers with the Chevy that fits their needs—and budgets. This sort of philosophy has turned out rather well for everybody concerned—this is the 31st year our sales have increased.

Ohio Relays Due Saturday In Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Olympic champion Glenn Davis heads a star-studded list of track and field talent who compete here Saturday in the 17th annual Ohio relays.

The spring classic, which has attracted more than 600 athletes from 27 schools, features a 27-event program.

The top attraction appears to be the 400-meter race which pits Davis, the ex-Ohio State star, against such stalwarts as Mel Barnwell of Pittsburgh, Purdue's sensational freshman, Dave Mills, and Wayne Etherton, also of Purdue.

Davis, who holds world records in the 400 meter hurdles and the 440-yard dash, does his running now for the Ohio Track Club.

The meet is conducted on an individual basis with no team championship. But potent Michigan is expected to cop most of the honors.

Bob Gutowski, formerly of Occidental College and now in the Marines, is the man to beat in the pole vault. Gutowski has vaulted 15 feet, 9 3/4 inches, an NCAA and American record.

The 100-yard dash is loaded with speed merchants. Tom Robinson of Michigan is given the early nod to win over such worthy opponents as Barnwell, Hayes Jones, Eastern Michigan flash, and Les Carney of Ohio University.

Dulles Unable To Wrest Initiative from Russians

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — When John Foster Dulles took office as secretary of state six years ago his avowed purpose was to "wrest the initiative" from the Soviet Union and put the United States and its allies on the offensive in the cold war. He never succeeded in achieving this major objective.

Soon after he was sworn in, he found himself caught up in a tide of crises that ran throughout his crowded years in the State Department. His major contributions to the development of U.S. foreign policy have been, with few exceptions, on the defensive side of cold war strategy.

Foremost among his accomplishments, perhaps is the vast expansion he engineered in United States alliances and military commitments over the world. He inherited the North Atlantic Alliance, which he hoped to create, from his predecessor, Dean Acheson. But building on the coalition pattern thus established, he extended U.S. commitments in the Far East, Communist Asia and the Middle East to such a degree that Soviet-Chinese communism can hardly thrust out in any direction now without risking U.S. retaliation.

In the course of making the new commitments Dulles developed a technique which solved a difficult problem in the conduct of U.S. foreign policy.

By getting advance authority from Congress, he eliminated a potential weakness which, in a moment of crisis, might have prevented the President from taking effective action.

Such a crisis arose last year when revolution overthrew the pro-Western government of Iraq. Dulles and Eisenhower feared that other friendly regimes would topple like a row of blocks, beginning with Lebanon and Jordan. Against threats of Soviet counteraction the President dispatched

U.S. troops to Lebanon and British forces went into Jordan to cave both countries from possible falling into unfriendly hands.

Dulles was in international hot water for a time last year, with his insistence on supporting Nationalist China in its defense of the Chinese coastal islands, Quemoy and Matsu, against Red attack. Britain was especially fearful that Dulles might lead the United States into an unwanted war in the Far East. He was confident, however, that if American determination was clear to the Chinese Reds they would not attempt to invade the islands. In the end his judgment seemed to be borne out by their failure to press their campaign.

In 1956 Dulles found himself faced with perhaps the worst and most dangerous crisis of his State Department years. It involved the seizure of the Suez Canal by Egypt.

The British and French governments then in power grew tired of what they considered his defeatist attitude on the Suez issue. They attacked Egypt, after an attack by Israel.

Dulles was caught in the dreadful dilemma, as he saw it, of having to back this country's chief allies in an adventure of which he thoroughly disapproved or having to denounce their action and wide open.

He chose the latter course and

Highlights for Next Week Are Detailed

NEW YORK (AP)—Most television stations offer about 120 hours a week of programming. Here, from the three major TV networks are some programs in the coming week to add to regular favorites.

Saturday night on ABC, the swing and sway maestro retitles his show "Sammy Kaye's Music from Manhattan."

Sunday afternoon on ABC a special Passover drama will be presented in Reginald Rose's "The Final Ingredient." John Cassavetes, Sam Jaffe and Gerald Hiken are featured in a story set in a Nazi concentration camp.

The second part of "Too Bad About Sheila Troy" by Art Wallace will be visible on Oldsmobile Theater Thursday night on NBC.

What should be the outstanding drama of the week can be seen Thursday on CBS when Du Pont Show of the Month presents "The Browning Version." Sir John Gielgud and Margaret Leighton star in the story of a crucial day in the life of an English schoolmaster.

Tad Mosel, who has written some fine TV dramas, offers his first of the season on Playhouse 90 9:30 over CBS. Eileen Heckart and Heather Sears costar in a story of what happens to a supposedly stable family when they take in an attractive girl to live with them.

Gene Kelly offers a special music variety program Friday night over CBS. His guests will include Carl Sandburg and ballerinas Judith Dornys and Gert Anderson.
